IN BRIEF

• JOBS PROGRAM: The Accessories Council has teamed up with the Laboratory Institute of Merchandising to create Accessories Council/LIM Talentsource to help fashion and fashion-related industry professionals identify new career opportunities. The program will provide a database of positions and candidates for potential employees, offer career counseling, have network events and educational events to all partners. "The fashion industry has some of the best talent in the U.S. economy, and by partnering with LIM, we hope to keep that talent here, in the fashion industry," said Karen Giberson, president of the Accessories Council.
