SEVIS Fee Payment

The SEVIS I-901 fee is mandated by Congress to support the Student and Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP) and the automated system that keeps track of students and exchange visitors and ensures that they maintain their status while in the United States. Each student or exchange visitor issued an initial Form I-20 or DS-2019 on or after October 27, 2008, is responsible for paying the $200 fee to SEVP. The fee can either be paid by mail with a check, via the Internet using a credit card or through Western Union. For more information, please visit the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement website. The link to their website is https://www.fmjfee.com/i901fee/index.jsp. Confirmation of the SEVIS Fee payment is required before the visa will be issued. This confirmation must be filed with your visa application.

PLEASE NOTE: Although citizens of Canada and Bermuda are not required to apply for a visa to study in the U.S., they are required to pay the SEVIS Fee.

Transfer Students or Other Applicants Already in the U.S.
If you are already enrolled in a school in the U.S on an F-1 student visa, an electronic SEVIS transfer can be done. We will provide you with a transfer form that will have to be completed by your International Student Advisor at your current school. The International Student Advisor will also have to electronically transfer your SEVIS record to LIM College in order for us to issue a new I-20. To complete the transfer, please submit a copy of your I-20, the visa page from your passport, the front and back of the I-94 and the identification page of your passport with the name, photo and expiration date. If you are in the U.S. on another type of visa that permits you to change your status, the change can be made in the U.S. or by travelling outside of the U.S. and applying for an F-1 visa to gain F-1 student status).

Working in the U.S. on an F-1 Visa
F-1 students may not work off-campus during the first academic year, but may accept on-campus employment subject to certain conditions and restrictions. There are various programs available for F-1 students to seek off-campus employment, after the first academic year. F-1 students may engage in three types of off-campus employment, after they have been studying for one academic year. These three types of employment are:

- Curricular Practical Training (CPT)
- Optional Practical Training (OPT) (pre-completion or post-completion)
- Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) Optional Practical Training Extension (OPT)

Curricular Practical Training
Curricular Practical Training (CPT) is an alternative study, internship or other type of required practicum that is offered by a sponsoring employer through your college or university. CPT is only available for F-1 students when it is part of an established curriculum within a school. In order to qualify for CPT, you must have completed one full academic year of study, unless you are a graduate student whose program requires immediate CPT. To apply for CPT, your DSO needs to authorize it in SEVIS and provide you with a Form I-20 indicating your recommendation for employment. Remember that all students who work in the United States must apply for a SSN.
Optional Practical Training
Optional Practical Training (OPT) is a form of temporary employment that directly relates to your program of study. You can apply for OPT during your program of study, which is known as pre-completion OPT, or after you finish your program of study, known as post-completion OPT. In order to apply for OPT, F1 students must request approval from their DSO. A DSO makes this recommendation by endorsing a student’s Form I-20. Then the student must file the Form I-765 with USCIS, if approved, USCIS will issue a Form I-766. You cannot begin to work until you receive your Employment Authorization Document from USCIS.
You can apply for 12 months of OPT at each education level, (i.e., you may have 12 months of OPT at the bachelor’s level and another 12 months of OPT at the master’s level.)
If you have additional OPT or CPT questions please visit https://studyinthestates.dhs.gov/students, ICE.gov/SEVIS, USCIS.gov
